TOM STOCKTON, PRESIDENT

President's Column

What a busy and event-filled fall it has been! The Stone House is truly a busy place, filled with momentum and activity in all aspects of our mission and it is exciting to be part of such a vibrant organization! A lot has been happening with regards to the maintenance and preservation of our Museum, our finances, and of course, the social life of the Association.

Since our last newsletter we have had several fun-filled events and our volunteers have done much important work to secure the future of our Museum and Association. We enjoyed seeing many old friends and making some new ones at the Belchertown Fair, where many visitors came to the Belchertown Historic District Commission's booth—and our decorations won the Fair Booth Theme Prize! It was a great opportunity for us to advertise our mission and upcoming events, including the very successful Halloween 'n' History Mount Hope Cemetery tours on October 27th. Many thanks to Marnie Henneman who organized this wonderful event that included presentations in the Old Town Hall, walking tours of the Mount Hope Cemetery with live reënactors, and magician Fran Ferry, courtesy of McCarthy's Pub. Many people commented that this was a wonderful evening for the whole family.

Then, the very next weekend, it was time for our annual Yuletide Event, and many kudos are due to Sally Shattuck, Denise Smith, Maureen Austin and the whole committee for bringing off this event so beautifully.

Our many elegant baskets, wreaths, and crafts were the talk of the town and all who attended the many bazaars that weekend. The Yuletide Event culminated with the drawing of our Fourth Annual Cash Raffle. We owe so many thanks to all those who supported our raffle so cheerfully, and to all who gave of their time selling tickets. I am pleased to announce that this was a very successful raffle for us. Our prize-winners were Barbara Sullivan (1st prize), Judy Bettencourt (2nd prize) and Lynne Coleman (3rd prize).

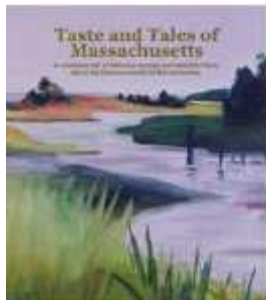

And as soon as Thanksgiving was over it was off to New York with our annual NYC Bus trip—just on the day of our first snowstorm! They were in New York a long time: it was Fall when they left and Winter when they got home! Thanks again to all who donated their time, talents, and treasure to make these last major events of 2009 a success.

The last of the new shutters arrived and was installed in time for the Yuletide Event. Many thanks to Kirk Stephens for all of his fine work! Less glamorous but vitally important are our continuing plans for a new furnace and air conditioner. (We will proceed with these projects as soon as we receive the Community Preservation funds voted at the town meeting last May.) The new replacement de-

P. Ann Pieroway, Back by Popular Demand!

P. Ann Pieroway, writer and editor of Taste and Tales of Cape Cod and the Islands and Taste and Tales of Massachusetts joined us in November at the Museum to talk about her latest books: A Taste of Cranberries and some tales, too and Taste and Tales of Cape Cod and the Islands.

All three books are chock full of irresistible recipes and delightful tales, Pieroway's cookbooks make the perfect gift for the chef in your life (or for yourself!)

humidifier should be installed in January—long before the humid Spring and Summer weather. We should all give thanks that the malfunctioning furnace and frozen water pipe in the kitchen was discovered before any water leaked into the basement. We are embarking on some long-needed repairs and improvements to the Tremaine House and Barn, and thanks to a very generous anonymous gift the lawn behind the Ford Annex has been improved and re-seeded, so let us also be grateful to all our kind donors and benefactors without whose generosity we would not have been able to meet these challenges.

Other more exciting projects underway relate to the redecoration of the Museum interior and redesigning the exhibit room in time for Opening Day. Much work remains to be done this winter and spring.

And speaking of winter and spring, it is not too early to mark your calendar for two upcoming fun fundraising events. First, our fifth annual Dinner Theater will be held on our (now) traditional date of the First Saturday in February (Feb. 6th). We are very excited this year that we will have a new acting troupe: actors will be organized by Todd Farnsworth and the fees we usually pay the actors will serve as a fundraiser for the Congregational Church. Tickets will soon be available, and we hope for a good turnout again this year, as this fundraiser helps get us through the dark dreary months of winter. The ticket price is expected to be $39.00 and includes dinner and the show at the Grapevine Grille here in Belchertown. By the way, the show will have a "Love Boat" theme, so if you're so inclined dress accordingly for a cruise!

Second, we will again this year have a Bus Trip to the Boston Flower Show and historic Quincy Market. The flower show did not happen last year, but this trip sold out quickly year before last, so try to get your reservations in quickly. The trip will be held on Wednesday March 24 or Thursday March 25. (For more information call Tom Stockton, 323-0946.) We are still negotiating ticket prices, so look for upcoming announcements in the Sentinel.

Finally, planning is already underway for our Annual Meeting in April, our annual Opening Day Event and plant sale, (to be held on the second Saturday of May), and our sixth annual Living History Days/Garden Tour July 10th – 11th. Volunteers and plant donations will be gratefully accepted this spring.

As winter progresses we continue to be active in working to promote our mission even though the museum is not open for regularly scheduled hours. We hope many of our members and friends will take advantage of the fun and educational activities in our upcoming calendar.

YULETIDE AT THE STONE HOUSE GREAT SUCCESS!

The Yuletide event was a great success thanks to many, many helping hands. The sales room was packed with lots of original, homemade gifts. The kitchen was overflowing with delightful cakes, pies, cookies and special seasonal treats. Our silent and Chinese auctions were very successful and all the winners went home happy. Mike Madden won the gorgeous Irish quilt donated by Florine Neggers. There were many sad faces from those who tried to win it, but, congratulations Mike!

The house looked absolutely festive. Our thanks to everyone who volunteered, donated or just came and shopped. Have a great new year and..start working now on how you can help with next year's Yuletide.
